

This photograph shows the Supervisors console in the main set room

The sub-assembly to the RH side of the supervisor provides audio output selection from any of 24 receivers on the handspeed positions plus a callup facility whereby an operators attention may be attracted by switching on a red light at the operating position.