

This picture shows F Sgts employed in the tape factory of the communications section. In this section the preparation of all outgoing and incoming raw material, end product reports and operations control traffic is handled on a 24 hours per day basis.