

This photograph depicts the machine intercept receiving bay where six RACAL RA-17C receivers are used in conjunction with ELMUX multiplex equipment. The output of each receiver is coupled to drive a frequency shift converter which in turn is coupled to the ELMUX consoles. 18 separate telegraphic channels are currently monitored on this position but the equipment is capable of handling 24 full telegraphic channels.