

This is a general view of the main set room taken from the northern end. The space extending to the partition in the centre background is occupied by handspeed morse positions and that beyond the partition by machine positions. The front of the Supervisors console can be in the right foreground. This room is manned 24 hours per day.